

IPG -Newsletter 99/04

Japanese B1 documents

From January 1999 onwards the Japanese patent office started to publish B1 documents. These are examined patent applications which have not been previously published at the A2 (Kokai) stage.

We will include these documents (up to now approximately 60 cases) from week 11/1999 onwards.

B1 published registered patent specification without previous A2 publication.

European Patent Office
Principal Directorate 5.4 Patent Information
Development

