code meaning

Any person who acquires any right in or under a patent or application for a patent, by virtue of a transactions instrument or event, is required to register the right in the register of patents. That person shall be entitled to the right as against any person who earlier acquired a right but did not register it or who had not given it to the comptroller. The registration of the right is advertised in the Official Gazette. By transaction, instrument or event is considered the following:- assignment or mortgage a patent or patent application; grant or mortgage of a licence under a patent or patent application; rights obtained following the death of the proprietor of a patent or patent application; or an order or direction of a court.
