code meaning

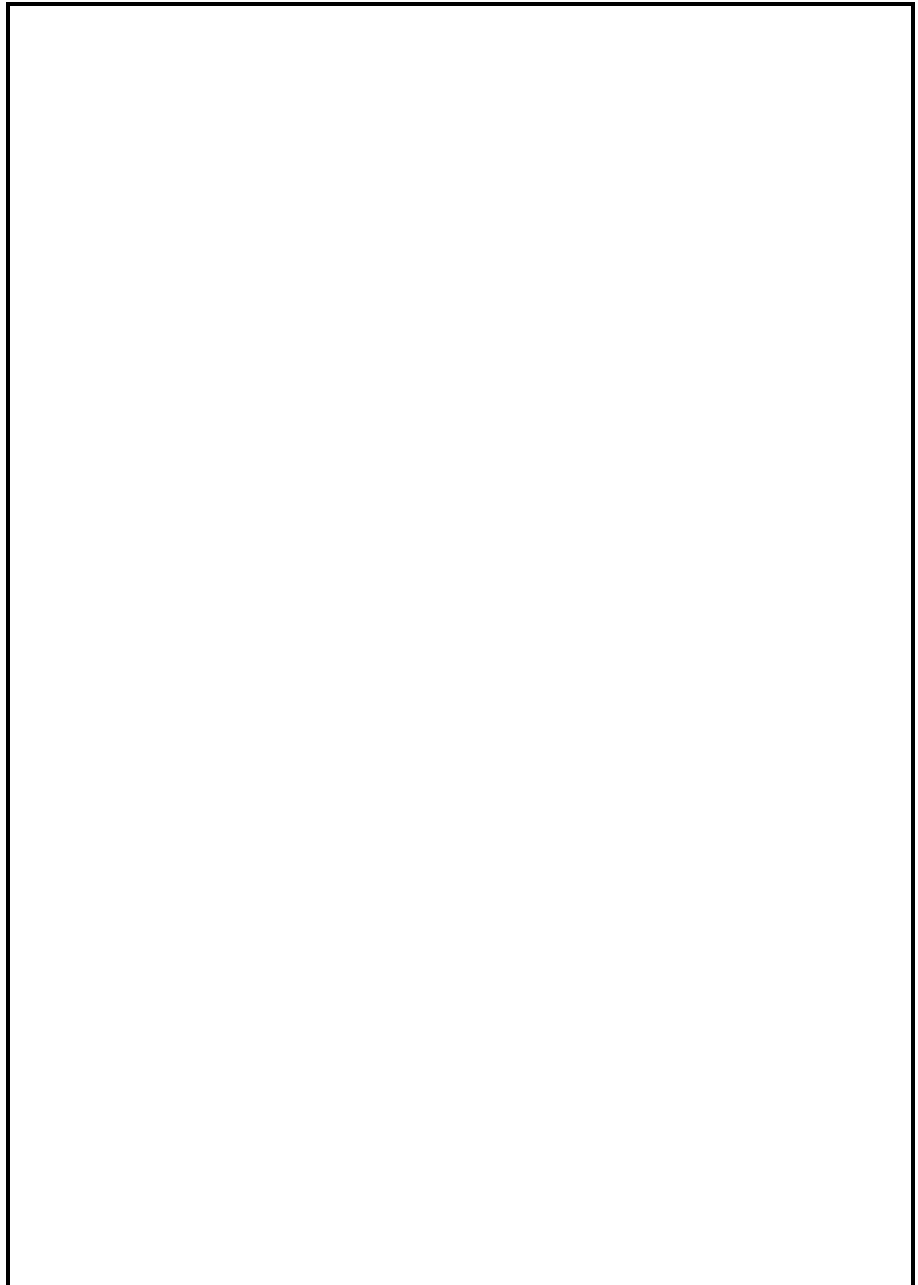

Section 33: Effect of registration, etc on rights in patents 33.01 Assignments and other transactions, instruments or events affecting rights in or under patents and applications may be entered in the register of patents once the patent application in question has been published. An application to register, or to give notice to the comptroller of, any such transaction, instrument or event should follow the procedure prescribed by r.46, see 32.08-10 Section 33 concerns the effect of such registration or giving of notice on the rights in question. 33.02 Section 33 applies in relation to not only 1977 Act patents and applications but also 1949 Act patents, granted European patents (UK) and applications for European patents (UK). Registration of an application for a European patent (UK) in the Register of European Patents kept by the EPO is treated as registration under the 1977 Act, see 32.07, 78.06 and 78.07.
