code meaning

Section 48: Compulsory licences 48.01 Under this section, applications may be made to the comptroller for him to order the grant of a licence under a patent or make an entry in the register making licences under a patent available as of right. Any such application must be made on one or more of the grounds set out in s.48(3) and follow the procedure prescribed by r.68. Those grounds are basically concerned with whether the monopoly conferred by the patent in question is operating against the public interest. 48.02 Further provisions regarding such applications and resultant licences are contained in ss.49 to 54. Section 46 is also relevant to licences of right entries made under s.48 to 51 (see 48.31 and 49.07). 48.03 See 46.02-07 for general discussion of the licence of right and compulsory licence provisions, including the relationship of the voluntary licences of right provisions (ss.46 and 47) with the compulsory licence and licences of right provisions (ss.48 to 54) and the relationship of all those provisions with the corresponding 1949 Act provisions. The present s.48 generally corresponds to 1949 Act s.37 but there are some significant differences, see 48.05. 48.06 and 48.08.
